CHECKLIST: Health, hygiene & facilities checklist

clean and disinfect surfaces and This checklist will assist you to implement shared equipment health and hygiene measures at your workplace and do a review of your facilities. wash body, hair (including facial hair) and Don't forget to also check our COVID-19 clothes thoroughly every day website for additional measures for stay more than 1.5 metres away your industry. from others don't shake hands and avoid any other close physical contact where possible Health & Hygiene practices no spitting Educate workers on good health and put cigarette butts in the bin hygiene practices Can you set up automatic alerts on computer Do your workers know not to come to work systems to remind workers about washing when they are unwell, even if they feel fit hands and good hygiene measures? to work? Put measures in place where reasonably Look for signs of 'presenteeism'? Are practicable to minimise contact between managers and supervisors modelling the people correct behaviours or is there a culture of 'soldiering on' that needs to be discussed as Can you put in a system to provide for a team? cashless transactions? ☐ Have you informed workers about the Require workers to minimise contact with importance of hand washing? others where possible Have you trained workers on how to wash See also: their hands (with soap and water for at least Physical distancing checklist. 20 seconds) and dry them correctly? Have you trained workers on how to correctly Hand washing & hand use alcohol-based hand sanitiser? Inform workers and others when they need to sanitising stations wash their hands. This includes: Are there an adequate number of hand □ before and after eating washing and hand sanitising stations to after coughing or sneezing sustain the increase in workers' practicing good hygiene? Consider: after going to the toilet ☐ after changing tasks any shift arrangements after touching potentially contaminated surfaces entry and exit points Inform workers of the following good hygiene high traffic areas measures to limit the spread of the virus: the need for workers to wash their hands cover coughs and sneezes with an elbow before, during or after the completion of or a tissue a work task avoid touching the face, eyes, nose the location of the workplace or work and mouth tasks. Will workers be located outside away from common facilities such dispose of tissues hygienically

a cigarette

wash hands before and after smoking

as bathrooms?

CHECKLIST: Health, hygiene & facilities checklist

	Are the hand washing and hand sanitising stations placed in convenient location to ensure workers and others can access them easily and frequently?  Have you talked to your contract cleaner or responsible worker to discuss if someone can check soap dispensers and monitor rubbish		Put measures in place that encourage good hygiene in the workplace
_				Increase access to closed bins in your workplace. Put up signs to request customers only touch objects they are going to buy.
Hov	bins more frequently?  ow to set up hand washing facilities  Check the facilities are in good working order.			rep awa	mmunicate to workers that they are to ort any flu-like symptoms to you, to stay from the workplace and to seek advice a health care professional.
	Ensure facilities are adequately stocked with clean running water, soap or handwash and paper towels.			star	plement or review existing hygiene andards for common areas to ensure they uire workers to:
		Is water collecting anywhere it shouldn't?			Clean up after themselves
		any paper towel dispenser			Place rubbish in bins provided working properly?  Are automatic soap dispensers			Avoid putting personal items such as phones on meal surfaces
	Car	an option? n you provide touch free bins?	I		Have adequate detergent and disinfectant products
	Put posters up to inform workers and others how to wash their hands correctly and when to wash their hands.  w to set up hand sanitising stations		Put processes in place to regularly monitor and review the implementation of hygiene measures to ensure they are being followed and remain effective.
	Does the alcohol-based hand sanitiser have at least 60% ethanol or 70% isopropanol as the active ingredient as per the			Put processes in place to make sure someone checks all hand washing and hand sanitising stations are adequately stocked.
	manufacturer's instructions? Set up stations at			Put processes in place to enable workers to efficiently raise issues relating to worker hygiene and hand washing or hand
	<ul><li>entry and exit points to the workplace</li></ul>
		entry and entry points to common areas	_	sanitising stations.
		in areas that have high touchpoints or high traffic flows	Ц	con	Develop infection control policies in consultation with your workers. These policies should outline measures in place to
For example: Around the photocopier, near lifts			prevent the spread of infectious diseases at the workplace.
	wor	up posters at each station to inform rkers and others how to sanitise their and when.		F	or more information:
	han	hildren may enter the workplace, is an sanitiser in a position to prevent idental ingestion?			sit the Hygiene information on e Safe Work Australia website .

